

ONE DAY NATIONAL WEBINAR ON
'AN OVERVIEW OF IPRs - IMPORTANCE AND IMPACT OF PATENTS'

Organized by
RESEARCH PROMOTION & MONITORING CELL

30.03.2021

Report

Every walk of life has been impregnated with novel creations, which needs to be protected under legal frame work, in turn may yield benefits to both the consumers and owners. In the midst of intense global competition for patents the current webinar has been organized for knowledge dissemination, particularly for the benefit of students. Awareness on Intellectual property rights may motivate the young scholars to pursue the cutting edge technology research which culminates to the novel creations leading to the holistic development, and a win – win situation.

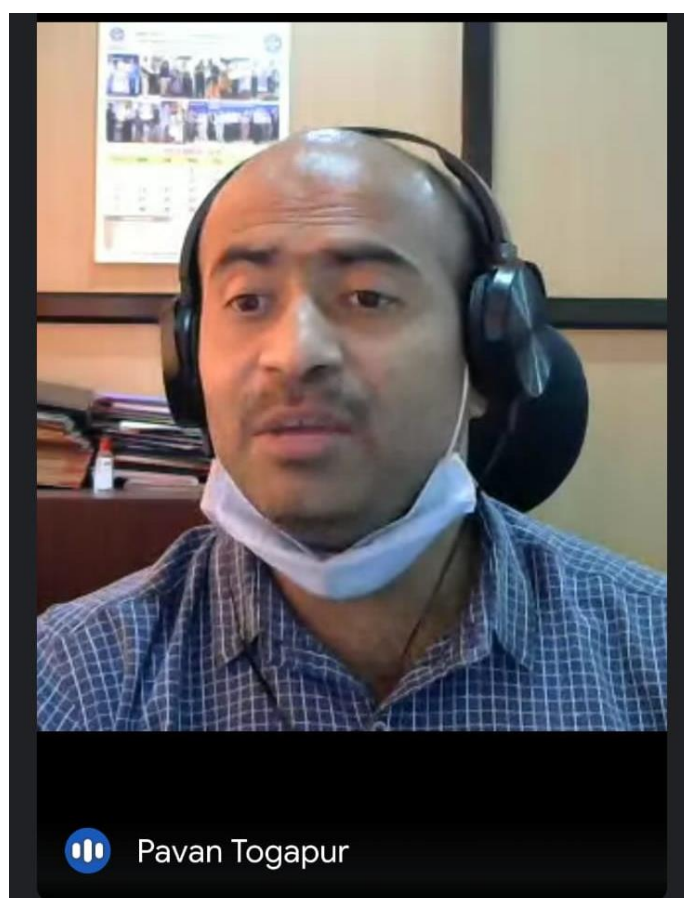

Keeping in view the importance of IPRs, Research Promotion and Monitoring Cell, K.B.N College has organized a national webinar on Intellectual property Rights. The Speaker of the Webinar Dr. T. Pavan Kumar, Senior Scientist, CSIR – IMMT, Bhubaneswar, Odisha has spoken on wide range of issues pertaining to IPRs, particularly the role of patented products in our day to day life. The speaker gesticulated that students need to be imbued with the knowledge on IPRs. During the lecture he has enumerated with examples the way lack of knowledge on IPRs denied the authentic rights on valuable products.

Finally, with the participation of varied academic intelligentsia, the webinar materialized its objective of knowledge dissemination.
