MANAGEMENT GAMES

Business Games refers to the training method for managers. This form of training is based on an artificial environment that simulates the real situation in the management of the organization.

Learning should be enjoyable and listening to a person talk is one of many methods of learning. However, it is less suitable for people who prefer a more practical, active approach. Management games help make learning interactive, enjoyable and realistic with key learning points to take back to the workplace.

However, there are many reasons for running management games including:

- A game simulates 'real life' conditions of what the training is trying to communicate
- It is enjoyable with lots of learning in a short space of time
- It generates interest in the subject and is rich in experiential learning
- The game allows participants to easily interact, socialise, and network with others
- It provides much evidence for the facilitator and participants to debrief and learn from.

Key benefits of our management games:

- Wide selection of business games and training materials produced by us and other top companies
- Best price guaranteed with help before and after your purchase
- Buy and use as many times as you want
- Easy to use – just follow the included trainer's guide
